C. TERWILLIGER RITES TOMORROW

RESIDENT OF LAKE COUNTY SINCE 1882 TO BE BURIED WITH I.O.O.F. SERVICES

Funeral services for Cornelius Terwilliger, 85-year-old Lake county pioneer resident who died at his home here Saturday afternoon of a heart attack following a week's illness, will be held at the Presbyterian church at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Fred E. Stockton, Fargo, N. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church and close friend of the Terwilliger family, who is expected to arrive by bus this evening. Rev. Stockton will be assisted by the Rev. Carl Stromberg, pastor of the Methodist church of which Mr. Terwilliger was a member for many years.

Mr. Terwilliger's death removes one of the few remaining first settlers of this community. Born June 1, 1851, near Cincinnati, O., he moved with his family to Galien, Mich., after the death of his father when Cornelius was but six years old. He grew to young manhood in Michigan and was married to Margaret Whitmore near St. Joseph, Mich., in September, 1876. To this marriage, five children were born, four of whom survive.

The family moved to Alta, Ia., in 1880, coming west to Dakota Territory in 1882 and locating on a farm in Lake county, 1½ miles west of Lake Herman. In 1894, they moved to another farm 10 miles south of Madison where they lived until 1908 when Mr. Terwilliger retired from active farm work and came to Madison. Mrs. Terwilliger died here on May 2, 1919. A daughter, Clara, died February 11, 1909.

Mr. Terwilliger was a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge for 56 years and became affiliated with the lodge upon coming to Lake county. He belonged to all branches, the Canton, Excelsior Encampment, Rebekah and Muscovite, and was a Past Noble Grand. Much of his time was spent in later years in the lodge rooms where he was affectionately known as "Dad" Terwilliger.

Surviving relatives are two daughters, Mrs. Addie M. Murray, Maddison, ~~and~~ Mrs. Alive Byrne, Orland township, and two sons, John W. and Frank, both of Madison, 14 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Graceland cemetery under direction of the Hallenbecks. Pallbearers, all members of the Canton in full dress uniform, will be Carl Root, Roy Trotter, John Herrington, James Palmer, Ed Owens and George Palmer. All members of the lodge have been requested to attend the last rites in a body.

RATTLESNAKE RECORD

Michigan Farmer Says He Is Champion Foe of Reptile.

Lansing, Sept. 3.—Killing more than 3,000 rattlesnakes in twenty-five years is the record of Charles H. Silcox, a farmer, who claims the championship of the central states.

Silcox, who was formerly a printer and who, when a youngster in the trade, "set up" copy from the pens of Mark Twain and Bill Nye, as well as M. Quad, quit the type-setting business thirty years ago to take up agricultural pursuits in Michigan.

Silcox settled on an island in the middle of a 6,000 acre tract of swamp land owned by Zack Chandler, Michigan's greatest statesman. Chandler, when he was a United States senator, owned a vast acreage in central Michigan. The land was composed of marshy ground, much of which was inundated the year around. Some of it, however, was tillable and Chandler declared that there was a future for it when Michigan became settled and agriculture became an absolutely necessary industry.

Silcox was hired by the Chandler estate to till the ground that was workable on the island, whereon Chandler had erected a fine old house and where in the earlier days he entertained statesmen and congressmen extensively. Silcox occupied this old house and cultivated the land about it. The plowing season was a dangerous one every spring on account of the great number of rattlesnakes that infested the lowlands and which came out on high lands to bask in the sun and thaw out their dormancy.

The first year on the Chandler farm Silcox's wife nearly abandoned him on account of fear of reptiles which came into the house as regular as ants. Silcox, however, persuaded her to remain and assist in the killing, and nearly 400 rattlers were slaughtered the first year. Every year from then on, Silcox averaged over 100 dead rattlers. He has killed as many as ten in one small pile of swamp hay.

This spring was his smallest record, as but ten poisonous snakes were victims of his club. The small

MORTUARY RECORD

Smith Ludlum.

Smith Ludlum, who for fifty-seven years has been a resident of Berrien county, died at his home in New Troy Saturday afternoon at the good old age of 80 years.

The deceased was born in Deerfield, O., June 8, 1833, and on Aug. 20, 1858, was married to Miss Eunice Arison, who with eight children survive him. Nineteen grand children and eight great grandchildren also survive the pioneer, who was a member of the M. E. church of New Troy and the I. O. O. F. lodge at Glendora.

The funeral was held in New Troy Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Glendora, Rev. Ferris officiating following with interment in the New Troy cemetery.

Mr. Ludlum is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Luella Penwell, Michigan City, Ind.; James Ludlum, St. Joseph, David Ludlum, Michigan City, Ind.; Mrs. Alice Brant, Sawyer, John Ludlum, Sawyer; Roy Ludlum, Chicago; Charles ~~Ludlum, New~~ Troy, and Mrs. George Daniels of New Troy.

Mrs. Catherine Mueller.

Mrs. Catherine Mueller, residing just beyond the city limits, on Lake View avenue, died suddenly at 3 a. m. Wednesday after an hour's illness from neuralgia of the heart. Mrs. Mueller retired Tuesday night feeling as well as ever and about 2 o'clock her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Simon, whom she lived with, heard groans emanating from the adjoining room and she hastened to her mother's aid, found her very ill and called Dr. Allen, who responded as quickly as possible, but she soon became unconscious and passed on.

...ns of interest to the assembled teachers; and that done by Thomas and his orchestra in presenting American compositions, is of great interest as well as a source of much encouragment to ambitious composers.

At the first orchestral concert Hon. Don Dickinson introduced Gov. Luce, who in a very happy manner congratulated and admired the good sense of the Association for choosing Detroit as a place of meeting.

A pleasant feature of the week was the reception given at the Philharmonic Hall by the ladies of the musical clubs of Detroit; it was perfectly informal; animated conversation, heated atmosphere, and cooling ices were served in generous quantities and the occasion was pronounced the most successful ever enjoyed by the M. T. N. A.

Prof. J. H. Hahn, of Detroit, was unanimously elected President of the Association. The next meeting will be held in Minneapolis in '92. It was voted to have the convention in Chicago during the World's Fair and steps are already being taken to make this the most representative and elaborate M. T. N. A. ever yet held in the United States.

Vieritz

Greetings from Australia. I discovered today that an ancestor of mine, Robert (Bob) Vieritz, (actually my 2nd cousin), was an identity in Berrien County, due to his work in agriculture. Is there anyone out there who can give me more information please? Bob & his wife, Mary, came to Australia from Prussia after 1865, but they emigrated from Queensland to the USA some time afterward. They had one daughter, Norma, who married the baseball player, John Tucker in the early 1940's. Any information will be much appreciated.

Marsh

I am trying to locate a death record for Henry Marsh, born 1819 in Germany, died somewhere in the Buchanan/Galien area at his son, Landen Marsh's, in 1894. I have located a marriage date for Landen Marsh and Etta Hamilton in Berrien county in 1882. Henry Marsh was my great grandfather and I was always told he went to live with his son in his later years, dying in Michigan. Can you tell me where I would start?

Thank you.

RESIDENCE OF ROCK S. EDWARDS, SEC. 11, SODUS TP. BERRIEN CO., MICH.

THE 1860 ROCK S. EDWARDS FARM IN SODUS IS ON NATIONAL REGISTER

"We are pleased to inform you that this property was listed in the National Register on July 21, 1995." -From a letter by Carol D. Shull, Keeper of the National Register of Historic Places. National Park ervice. Thanks to the State Historic Preservation Officer Kathryn B. Eckert and National Register Coordinator Robert Christensen for their help; it took over a year and a half to prepare the nomination.

Rock Savage Edwards' name is among the early settlers listed on the Sodus Pioneer Memorial in Sodus oint Park. He came from England to America in 1857, a single man at the age of 28, living with relatives in hio and working on farms there and in Michigan until he saved enough to buy the 40 acres here in Sodus. e then went into the Civil War, 17th Infantry, Co. B, fighting his first battle at Antietam where he was left or dead. It was a surgeon's overdose of quinine that rendered him unconscious, and he was nursed back o health by southerners. He recovered and fought in other battles and was honorably discharged. He arried Lydia Fox of Ravenna, Ohio. They were active in the formation of the United Brethren Church in odus, meeting at the Rector Schoolhouse in 1865. Childless, he left the farm to his nephew from England, dward C. Edwards, who married Euranie Evans, and their descendants have kept the farm in the family . t was one of the first four farms in Sodus Township made a Michigan Centennial Farm in 1960.

F L T I.O.O.F.

Friendship, Love, Truth

While looking for items for the time capsule, I ran across several items on the I.O. O.F. doing this or that. Now like everyone else I know this be the Odd Fellows, or more precisely Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Each group has a Lodge number in the order they were established and from there it becomes complicated. Being a good historian I wanted to know more so here it is in a nutshell of a nutshell from the I.O.O.F. of Michigan website.

When or how the Odd Fellows started is unsure they just know that the fires recorded meeting of Lodge No. 9 at the Globe Tavern in England, in 1748. There are several guesses on how the Odd Fellows were formed: 1) they were a common man's Freemason Lodge to that of the nobility; 2) they were "Fellow Citizens" of Roman who were in the Legions; and 3) they were Ancient Order of Bucks. Whatever the history in England they do have a full account of the begins of the Shakespeare Lodge No. 1 organized by five "Brothers" of an English Order that established in New York City, in 1806 – their founds were 3 boat builders, a comedian and a vocalist (difficultly odd fellowship); thence starts the humble beginnings of the I.O.O.F. in America. Now the office American Odd Fellowship was founded in 1819 in Baltimore, Maryland as Washington Lodge No. 1.

Why are Odd Fellows called such, they are not really sure: 1) "The common laboring men should associate themselves together and form a fraternity for social unity and fellowship and for mutual help was such a marked violation of the trends of the times that they became known as 'peculiar' or 'odd'; and hence they were derided as 'Odd Fellows.'", this is also the official version; and 2) Odd Fellows were a group of men who engaged in various or unusual trades. I noted in my searching that there are many different versions but they are all basically the same just in their detailing.

The Odd Fellows have a Valediction which I feel sums them up. "I am an Odd Fellow: I believe in the Fatherhood of man. I believe the Brotherhood of man. I believe in Friendship, Love and Truth as basic guides to the ultimate destiny of all mankind. I believe my home, my church or temple, my lodge, and my community deserve my best work, my modest pride, my earnest faith, and my deepest loyalty, as I perform my duty's visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan' and as I work with others to build a better world, because, in spirit and in truth, I am and must always be, grateful to my Creator, faithful to my country and fraternal to my fellow-man; I am an Odd Fellow."

Like other fraternities of their kind they do great works in their community; and these men and women (who can be Rebekahs) proudly mark their final resting places with emblems of their Order. If you have seen on a headstone or what is common about Berrien County 3 links of a chain, this is the symbol of Friendship, Love and Truth, the Odd Fellows' creed.

There is much, much more on the history and it's different Degrees: Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Sovereign, Encampments and Patriarchs Militant. One can check this out through http://www.ioofmichigan.org/index.html; this site is designed for members or want-to-bes but they are very honest with their information.

To the Probate Court for said County:

In the Matter of the Estate of Eunice Ludlum, Deceased

I, George Daniels, respectfully represent that I reside in the Township of Weesaw in said county, and am interested in said estate and make this petition as Administrator of said Estate

I further represent that the deceased died seized of certain real estate in Weesaw Township, and that I have petitioned the court for license to sell said real estate.

I further show that the buildings on said real estate are in great need of paint; that the expense of painting said buildings would not be great and the improved appearance of the same would aid greatly in selling the real estate, and in my opinion, would enable me to get a much greater price for the real estate than I could with the buildings in the condition they are at the present time.

I further show that I have enough cash in my hands as administrator of said estate to pay for the paint and application of the same to said buildings and that in my opinion, the expense of making this improvement on said estate would increase the value by two or three times of the actual expense of the improvement.

I therefore pray that an order may be entered in this cause, permitting and authorizing me as administrator of said estate to have said buildings painted at a reasonable cost as a necessary expenditure for the benefit of said estate.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

SUMMER VISITOR TO NEW TROY IS VICTIM OF AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Died June 5 - 1937

NEW TROY, June 7 (Special). — Funeral services will be conducted here Tuesday afternoon for Charles Peterson, well known resident of Eidson Park (Chicago) who died Saturday at Harvey, Ill., from injuries sustained Friday in an automobile crash. Mr. Peterson is well known in New Troy where he spent much time each summer. He is survived by his widow, the former Una Daniels, of New Troy, and two children, Ray and Alice.

Short services will be conducted in Chicago Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the burial will be at New Troy at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Frederic Williams, of Baroda, will officiate.

Mrs. Eunice Peterson

NEW TROY, Dec. 11—Mrs. Eunice Daniels Peterson, widow of Charles E. Peterson and member of a pioneer New Troy family, died suddenly at her home in Chicago yesterday as the result of a heart attack.

Mrs. Peterson was born in New Troy, Sept. 13, 1877, the daughter of Frank A. and Mary Daniels, early settlers of this community. She graduated from the New Troy high school and later became the wife of Charles E. Peterson of Chicago, where they made their home. Mrs. Peterson, however, had spent much of her time since her husband's death in New Troy and vicintiy.

Mrs. Peterson leaves one son, Ray C. Peterson, and one daughter, Miss Mary Alice Peterson, both of Chicago. She is also survived by a brother, George W. Daniels, New Troy, two nephews and two nieces. The latter are Frank Daniels, Benton Harbor; Roy Addison, New Troy; Mrs. Howard Wooley, Coloma; and Mrs. Carrie Morley, Galien.

Following funeral rites in Chicago Saturday forenoon, the body will be brought here and committal services will be held at the family lot in New Troy cemetery at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Edward J. Ludlum, now 93, Recalls Early Boyhood Days on Anniversary

MONTPELIER—A very interesting history of the life of Edward J. Ludlum, who celebrated his ninety-third birthday recently at Bradenton, Fla., has been furnished the News-Times by his daughter, Miss Gretchen Ludlum. Mr. Ludlum is widely known in the community, and the history will be found very interesting to the younger generation as well as to the older people who have known the Ludlum family over a long period of years. The history follows:

Edward J. Ludlum

Cousin of Watty L. Daniels

"Edward J. Ludlum was born in Chester Township, Wells county, Indiana, in a log cabin about a half mile from his present Indiana residence, on January 27, 1862. His parents were Alex and Esther Brannum Ludlum.

"At that time, the farm was practically all timber land. Mr. Ludlum attended the Goodin School, located near the present home of Mrs. Rosa Lowry, for two years. Then the Shields School was built, while Philip Shadle, Sr., was trustee, and was located on what is now the Ernest Reeve farm. Early schoolmates of Mr. Ludlum were Sue Maddox, Alice Maddox, Mrs. Sol Rea, Maude Towns, Lizzie McCaffery Bales, Jennie Wood, Amaziah Shields, Clem Carr, Mrs. Ida Rinard, Will, Eugene and Mary Perry (Ballenger), Lizzie and Eva Alspach, later Mrs. Rufus Morison, and Sherman Shields. One of the best school teachers he ever had, according to Mr. Ludlum, was James Johnson, the father of Carson E. Johnson. All of his schoolmates, so far as he knows, have pased away except Lizzie Bales, who now resides in Hartford City.

Married In 1886

"Edward J. Ludlum was married to Miss Adalena C. Stout on July 14, 1886. The bride's attendant was Miss Grace Stout (later Mrs. Harry Morgan of Hartford City), and others present were her grandmother and many friends. Mrs. Lena C. Ludlum passed away May 28, 1918. Children of the couple were Mrs. Grace Barker, Chicago, Ill., Gretchen and Weber Ludlum, who are spending the winter months with Mr. Ludlum in Florida; Jeneta, who passed away in infancy, and Alex W. Ludlum who pased away at Yakima, Wash., in April, 1952, at the age of 53 years.

"Mr. Ludlum started helping on the farm at an early age. He began truck farming when about 44 years of age and continued actively in that business until he was 89 years of age, helping to gather and prepare produce for market and also driving the car to market.

Enjoys Hobby

"Being confined to his home in the winter, at the age of 85 years, Mr. Ludlum took up art work as a hobby, and has made some very nice bird pictures, using oil paints as well as crayons. He continued His general health, at the present time, is very good. In 1954, due to an infection in his right foot, it was necessary for him to undergo surgery and his right leg was amputated above the knee. Mr. Ludlum has recovered his strength, although confined to a wheel chair. He can get in and out of the wheel chair alone, and goes about the house without asistantance. He loves to ride in the car, and sometimes rides for fifty miles in an afternoon.

Recalls Pioneer Days

"Mr. Ludlum thinks the young people ~~of today would do much~~ beter if older people would set a better example. He is a member of the Montpelier Methodist church. He remembers when the first railroad train ran into town. The main part of Montpelier was located at Matamoras until they began making the grade for the railroad, when people began moving nearer the railroad. About this time, Boon and Twibell had a general store. Boon passed away, then Henry Brannum (father of Mrs. W. F. Sinclair) became his partner. Dr. C. Q. Shull owned a drug store, Lon Bryson started a saw mill. Mr. Bryson will be remembered as the father of Mrs. Coe Michael. He later was connected with the First National Bank.

"Charles Chaney started a hardware store, (he was the father of William B. Chaney), and J. F. Arnold started a general store which later was know as Purman and Johnston's. Mr. Ludlum remembers when all small grain was cut using a cradle, raked by hand and tied in bundles. Perry Brothers owned one of the first threshing machines, with a wood-burning steam engine. Isam West owned a threshing steam engine, but it was pulled from farm to farm by horses. He thinks the grain was threshed with a tumbling shaft. It had no straw stacker, so two or three men had to work on the stack. The bands on the grain were cut by hand, and it required about twenty-five men to do a threshing. The dinner was served by the farmer's wife, assisted by neighbor women.

"Corn was jobbed in with a hand-jobber. Roads were almost impassable in the spring of the year. Some roads were called corduroy, being made by placing logs crossways of the road, close together. There were miles and miles of corduroy roads between Montpelier and Fort Wayne. Mr. Ludlum remembers when grain had to be hauled to market to Huntington and Fort Wayne, with horses and wagons.

"James Bell had a water mill where corn and wheat were ground, located near the bridge east of Five Points. Later, A. G. Miller and Fred Miller started a mill run by steam, located on the Salamonie River one mile north of Montpelier, across from where Mr. Ickes now lives.

Witnessed Oil Boom

"Montpelier was rather a small town until the oil boom in 1900 to 1910 brought many newcomers to town. Montpelier has better law and order today than during the boom days, according to Mr. Ludlum.. In the early history of the community, there were no undertakers. The neighbors prepared the bodies for burial. Lyman Bonham made coffins which Mr. Ludlum thinks sold for about $6 for infants, and cost more for older people. Neighbors hauled the corpse to the burial ground in a big wagon or spring wagon. Mr. Ludlum recalls that one time while fording the river and pulling up a steep grade or bank, the casket slid out of the wagon and was not noticed until the team had traveled some distance, when they had to turn back and recover the casket.

"Mr. Ludlum listens to all the news on the radio. He is interested in farm news and world happenings. He enjoys visiting with his eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren, loves to visit with old friends and make new ones. He has a remarkable memory for his age. As soon as milder weather returns to Indiana, Mr. Ludlum will be eager to return to his farm home. He is anxious to see his pet parakeet, Bobbie. They are great pals, and spend hours each day entertaining each other."

some very good bird pictures, using oil paints as well as crayons. He continued this hobby until his vision failed. In the year 1954, due to an infection in his right foot, it was necessary for Mr. Ludlum to undergo surgery and his right leg was amputated above the knee. Since then, he had been confined to a wheel chair, and later, to his bed.

Surviving Mr. Ludlum are two daughters, Mrs. Grace Barker, of Waynedale, and Miss Gretchen Ludlum, at home, and a son, Weber Ludlum, also residing in the Chester township home. A daughter, Janeta, passed away in infancy, and a son, Alex W. Ludlum, died at Yakima, Washington, in April of 1952, at the age of 53 years. Also surviving are the following grandchildren: Edward Barker, Waynedale; Mrs. Maurice (Florence) Walsh, Robert Barker and Kelvin Barker, all of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Ruth Fidler, Waynedale; Jack Ludlum, Fort Wayne; David Ludlum, serving as a missionary in Korea, and Alex, Jr., Ludlum of Yakama Wash. Funeral services for Cornelius Terwilliger, 85-year-old Lake county pioneer resident who died at his home here Saturday afternoon of a heart attack following a week's illness, will be held at the Presbyterian church at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Fred E. Stockton, Fargo, N. D., former pastor of the First Baptist church and close friend of the Terwilliger family, who is expected to arrive by bus this evening. Rev. Stockton will be assisted by the Rev. Carl Stromberg, pastor of the Methodist church of which Mr. Terwilliger was a member for many years.

Mr. Terwilliger's death removes one of the few remaining first settlers of this community. Born June 1, 1851, near Cincinnati, O., he moved with his family to Galien, Mich., after the death of his father when Cornelius was but six years old. He grew to young manhood in Michigan and was married to Margaret Whitmore near St. Joseph, Mich., in September, 1876. To this marriage, five children were born, four of whom survive.

The family moved to Alta, Ia., in 1880, coming west to Dakota Territory in 1882 and locating on a farm in Lake county, 1½ miles west of Lake Herman. In 1894, they moved to another farm 10 miles south of Madison where they lived until 1908 when Mr. Terwilliger retired from active farm work and came to Madison. Mrs. Terwilliger died here on May 2, 1919. A daughter, Clara, died February 11, 1909.

Mr. Terwilliger was a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge for 56 years and became affiliated with the lodge upon coming to Lake county. He belonged to all branches, the Canton, Excelsior Encampment, Rebekah and Muscovite, and was a Past Noble Grand. Much of his time was spent in later years in the lodge rooms where he was affectionately known as "Dad" Terwilliger.

Surviving relatives are two daughters, Mrs. Addie M. Murray, Madison, ~~and~~ Mrs. Alive Byrne, Orland township, and two sons, John W. and Frank, both of Madison, 14 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Graceland cemetery under direction of the Hallenbecks. Pallbearers, all members of the Canton in full dress uniform, will be Carl Root, Roy Trotter, John Herrington, James Palmer, Ed Owens and George Palmer. All members of the lodge have been requested to attend the last rites in a body.

Dear Mrs. McCoy:

I am extremely sorry to have been so slow in replying to your letter of February 16th which, however, was mailed on March 10th. My delay in replying has not been owing to any lack of interest, but only to my having been away from the campus and to pressing engagements here.

My father is the principal member of the family who is interested in our ancestry. His interest, however, is almost entirely in the direct male line. In that line, the first four generations all were named William, and the next three all were named Daniel. Then comes my grandfather, who was Charles Henry, and then my father, Walter Denton.

The only member of my family I can find who had Smith in his name was Waite Smith Everitt Ludlum. He was the fifth child and the third son of the second Daniel Ludlum. That Daniel was born December 6, 1766 and died July 25, 1837. I judge that Waite Smith Everitt Ludlum must have been born in approximately 1800.

My father, who is 77 years old, is now in England for the principal purpose of tracing the genealogy still further. He will be back some time in May, and I suggest that you might write to him at 189-30 116th Avenue, St. Albans 12, New York.

Sincerely yours,

Robert P. Ludlum

Dear "Cousin" Virginia:

On account of your very evident interest in the Ludlum genealogy, I am enclosing copy of the chart that I had prepared for last Sunday, but neglected to bring along. This will indicate just how the two of us are related; that is after you do a little substituting in your branch of the family.

I view of the evident interest on the part of several of those present last Sunday, we might be able to stir up enough interest to get a complete picture of the descendants of "your Smith Ludlum", as our scroll is somewhat lacking in that respect.

I might be able to prepare a form to get the ball rolling, as said form could be circulated amongst those who had accurate information, and thereby completed piecemeal.

It was a pleasure to have met you, and hope that Mrs. Roache and the writer will have the pleasure of seeing all of you frequently in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph.

SAWYER, July 30 — A cooperative dinner was served on the patio of the Roy Zeiger home at the recent reunion of the Ludlum family. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sexton, daughter and son-in-law of the Zeigers, acted as assistant host and hostess.

A new family of Ludlums has been added to the group through the efforts of the president, Roy Roach, of Kankakee, Ill., and Detroit, Mich. Mr. Roach read an item in a newspaper about two years ago concerning the death of a soldier, serving in Korea, whose last name was Ludlum. Mr. Roach wrote the family expressing his sympathy, giving information about his family and asking if there were a possibility of relationship. After investigation into the background of each family it was found that both have related ancestry and the new family now meets annually with the rest of the family group.

Mrs. Sexton will serve this year as secretary-treasurer of the family.

The oldest member in attendance was Mrs. Luella Penwell, of Buchanan, who is 95 years old. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. John Hamilton. The youngest member of the group of 47 present was Tommy Stearns, 3 years old.

MRS. LUELLA G. PENWELL.

BUCHANAN — Although Mrs. Luella Ganetta Penwell is a native Hoosier she can claim the distinction of being one of a small elite group of seasoned Wolverines who has lived in Michigan for almost a century.

Mrs. Penwell will be 101 years old Thursday.

She will spend the day quietly with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hamilton, 305 Sylvan St., with whom she has been living in recent years.

There won't be the elaborate shindig that marked her century of life a year ago when most of her 60-odd descendants and a host of friends dropped into taste cake, thinly sliced, and aglow with five score candles.

Settle For Small Cake.

Mrs. Penwell, her merry brown eyes twinkling, felt she isn't up to such an occasion twice in a row and this time will settle for a birthday cake baked by her daughter Fern and decorated with one candle to mark the completion of the first year of her second century.

Until last January she was spry and active, climbed stairs to her second floor bedroom and assisted with household chores. But since then her age has begun to tell and while she sits up for visitors, she prefers to spend her peaceful hours in reflection upon a full and happy life

She likes company, especially the visits of her three living children, 18 grandchildren, 35 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Keeps Mind Alert.

She has packed a heap of living into those 101 years and today is still alert in mind and spirit even though her body is showing signs of weariness.

Born in Wells County, Ind., Sept. 22, 1859, Mrs. Penwell was the eldest of nine children and knew the rigors of pioneer life and log cabin living.

As a child of two she moved with her parents, the Ludlums, from their home to another log cabin in the vicinity of New Troy, Mich., where she spent much of her life.

She was married 81 years ago and her husband died in 1930 a few weeks before their 50th wedding anniversary.

Abraham Lincoln, an Illinois backwoodsman, had aspirations to become president of the United States when she was born and the Gettysburg address was not yet in history books when she completed her education.

Lifelong Democrat.

A lifelong Democrat, she would vote for Senator John F. Kennedy in November if she got the chance. Last year pollsters were all set to take her ballot to her home when it was discovered that she had not been registered.

She thinks Kennedy is a young upstart but nevertheless a "fine boy" who would make a good president.

The trek from Indiana to Michigan was made in a covered wagon with pewter pots hanging from the sides. It was a bitter cold January and a wood stove was used to heat the interior.

Mrs. Penwell, who is 5 feet tall in her stocking feet, says she owes her longevity to a calm life in which her careworn hands were kept busy first with helping to care for her younger brothers and sisters, then her own five children and later in life, working as a housekeeper until she retired, reluctantly, at 85.

Survives Bad Fall.

Three years ago her hardiness and durability were demonstrated when she fell and it was thought that she had suffered a hip fracture.

Taken to a hospital, where she became the silver haired darling of nurses and doctors alike, a complete examination showed no fracture and after a few days of hobnobbing with the hospital help, ~~she returned to her home.~~ She can recall no major illness.

While her eyesight permits only the reading of headlines, and her hearing isn't what it used to be at 93, she still occasionally likes to watch television and listen to the radio.

Until recently she pursued her hobby of piecing quilts and making rugs, but has given it up.

Family Long Lived.

Longevity runs in her family. A sister, Mrs. George Daniels, lives in Coloma. Other of her brothers and sisters lived to become octogenarians.

Besides Mrs. Hamilton, her other two living children are Mrs. Roy Mitchell, Rt. 2, New Carlisle, and Clyde Penwell, Buchanan. Two other daughters are deceased. Mrs. Ethel Racine died in Michigan City in 1936 and Mrs. Cleta Clark died in Niles in 1949.

If the printing is large enough, Mrs. Penwell will be reading dozens of greeting cards that began arriving this week, lauding the little lady with the big birthday.

But she hopes the cards will not be the fancy new "smart alecky" kind. She prefers the traditional type, "Happy birthday great-great-grandmom, and many more of them."

MRS. PENWELL

BUCHANAN—Buchanan area's oldest resident, Mrs. Luella Penwell, will be 104 years old Sunday and the occasion will be quietly observed at the Barrett Rest Haven, Clear Lake Woods, where she has been a patient since 1960.

Mrs. Penwell was the oldest of nine children born to Ludlum and Eunice Smith of Wells County, Ind. She was born Sept. 22, 1859 and the family came to Berrien county when she was a small girl. She attended school in a log cabin, later known as the Painter school. May 30, 1880 she was married to Landon Penwell and for many years they resided on a farm near New Troy. Her husband died in 1930 shortly after they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. In 1943 she came to Buchanan to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hamilton. She was ill for several months before taken to the nursing home.

Minor strokes during the last several months have hindered her speech and hearing although she still gets up every day to sit in her rocking chair. She credits her logevity to having always lived a clean and active life. When her health was good she helped with household chores and enjoyed her hobbies of making rugs and quilts.

Mrs. Penwell has three children, Clyde, Buchanan, Mrs. Hamilton, now residing in St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Roy Mitchellfi of New Carlisle. She has 19 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren. A younger sister, Mrs. George Daniels, resides in Coloma.

The Olden Days Were Different

COLOMA—All things change and Mrs. Waty Daniels, who will mark her 90th birthday here Sunday, can testify to that.

She remembers when, as a teacher in Avery school in Weesaw township, she read a Bible at the opening of each ~~class~~ morning with the approval of school board members who told her to "take the stove poker" to any child that gave her trouble.

That's a far cry from today's schools in which whether to to read the Bible in ~~class~~ is a public issue and teachers must adopt a "hands off" policy with students.

Mrs. Daniels said the old system seemed to work, though. She said that she never had a discipline problem in her four years of teaching from 1893 to 1897.

OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY

A resident of Weesaw township for 82 years, Mrs. Daniels will mark her 90th birthday Sunday with an open house in the home of her daughter, Mrs. ~~George~~ Wooly, of Boyer road. Howard Wooley

Open house will be held from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels, will assist Mr. and Mrs. Wooly. Wooley

Mrs. Daniels was born Jan. 24, 1875, in Weesaw township to Smith and Eunice Ludlum. She attended New Troy schools and began teaching when she was 18 at the Avery school—a one-room building housing all eight grades.

In 1897, she married George W. Daniels, a New Troy farmer. The couple operated Daniels' 180-acre farm until 1930 when Daniels went into the real estate business. He ran the business until his death in 1957.

Mrs. Daniels then moved into her daughter's home.

HEALTH EXCELLENT

Mrs. Daniels said she is in excellent health and has never had much illness. She is the only living member of her family of five brothers and two sisters. One sister, Luella Pinwell of Buchanan, lived to be 104. She died last February.

Mrs. Daniels has a number of interests, including sewing, crocheting and doing the family mending in the Wooly household. She also has a stamp collection and keeps a scrapbook of things of interest concerning her family, friends and community.

She is a member of the Coloma Methodist church and its women's society. She transferred there from the New Troy Methodist church where she had attended since childhood. She is also a charter member of the Trojan Women's Club of New Troy.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Daniels has a son, Frank Daniels of Benton Harbor and six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Her grandchildren are Richard D. Wooly, Weesaw township treasurer; George Wooly, Coloma postoffice employe; Mrs. Gerold Hettic, Coloma junior high school instructor; George W. Daniels, a student at Central Michigan University, and John R. Daniels, a student at Michigan State University.

Buchanan Woman 100; To Be Honored Sunday

LUELLA PENWELL

BUCHANAN, Sept. 18 — Mrs. Luella Penwell, who resides with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, at 305 Sylvan ave., is Buchanan's oldest resident, and on Sunday she will be honored at a 100th birthday anniversary party for relatives and friends in the Hamilton home.

Mrs. Penwell, who attributes her longevity to having always lived a calm but active life, enjoys good health although because of failing eyesight is unable to continue her hobbies of making rugs and quilts. She still washes her own hair, makes her own bed and does other light chores. She enjoys watching television programs with the exception of those with dancing and music, which she considers is neither dancing nor music. Her favorite programs are lectures and speeches and she keeps abreast of both national and international news.

A native of Indiana she was born in Wells County, Sept. 22, 1859, the daughter of Smith and Eunice Ludlum. She was married to Landon Penwell on May 20, 1880. They came to Michigan and for many years resided on a farm near New Tory. Mr. Penwell died in 1930 not long after they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Penwell came to Buchanan to reside with daughter in 1943.

She has three children living, Mrs. Hamilton and Clyde Penwell, of Buchanan, and Mrs. Ray Mitchell, of New Carlisle, Ind. Two daughters, Mrs. Cleat Clark and Ethel Racine, are deceased. There are 19 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grand children.

Mrs. Luella Penwell To Mark 102 Years

21 SEP 1961

A spry lady known affectionately as "Grandma" will quietly celebrate a birthday anniversary Friday. On that day, Mrs. Luella Penwell will be 102 years of age and probably the oldest living resident in the area.

To visit with Mrs. Penwell is very misleading. Altho she has suffered a normal hearing loss over the years she can converse as easily as many persons many years younger. Her eyesight is still fairly good and she could be described as being in good health. This, plus a crystal clear memory and occasional wit, easily conceals her years and misleads the person to whom she talks. After visiting with her, it is not hard to realize why she is a favorite with the staff and other residents of Barrett's Rest Haven at Clear Lake.

Mrs. Luella Penwell

Enjoyed Active Life

In her younger years Mrs. Penwell was always very active and enjoyed hard work, especially in her garden. She loved to sew and make rugs and quilts. Her daughter, Mrs. Fred (Fern) Hamilton of 305 Sylvan street, is the proud owner of a quilt made by her mother at the age of 95 years. It is hard work that Mrs. Penwell credits for her unusually long and active life.

She was the oldest of nine children born to Smith and Eunice Ludlum, and was born September 22, 1859, in Wells county, Indiana. As a young girl she moved with the family to a farm near Galien, where she attended school in a log cabin and later in the Painter school.

Married Landon Penwell

In 1880 she was married to Landon Penwell of Galien and the couple went to live on a farm near New Troy. Except for about 10 years spent in Michigan City, Ind., Mrs. Penwell spent most of her married life around the New Troy area. Mr. Penwell died in 1930.

Following his death she worked and only the past 18 years has she lived with any of her children. About 18 years ago she came to live with Mrs. Hamilton and last October she was transferred to Barrett's Rest Haven due to her health. Since that time she has improved to her unusually healthy condition.

In addition to Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Penwell has two other children living. A son, Clyde, lives on a farm on East River road, and a daughter, Mrs. Roy (Hazel) Mitchell, lives near New Carlisle, Ind. Two other daughters, Mrs. Ethel Racine and Mrs. Cleta Clark, are deceased.

Mrs. Penwell also has 18 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchilren. The only other member of her family still living is a sister, Mrs. George Daniels, who is 85 and lives with her daughter near Coloma.

Hello again Fran,

I spent time at the Mesa Family History Library and this is what I found about the Penwells.

David H (or N) Penwell married Martha Scudder Martin in 1860. I checked the 1860 census for Michigan and found D. H. Penwell in Wesaw MI. Also listed were:

Martha S 26 born in NY (actually it was NJ)
Elizabeth A. 14 born Indiana.

David was also listed as born in Indiana. Since they had just gotten married I figured Elizabeth was the product of an earlier marriage of David's so I checked Indiana (1850) and found

David N. Penwell	33	farmer	b. Indiana
Susannah	30		"
James M.	9		"
Elizabeth A.	4		"
Dewit C	1		"

1850
− 33
b 1817

They were living in St. Joseph Co, Indiana. That is right next to LaPorte Co, where a lot of my Martin families lived, but there were no other Penwells in St. Joseph Co.

Now back to 1860, on the same page was

	George F.	33	farmer	Indiana
	Harriet	26		Ohio
	Sarah	11		Indiana
	Rawson	4		Michigan
	Landon	3		Michigan
	Lansing C	1		Michigan

I could make the assumption that George and David were brothers or related somehow but I have no proof as I did not find George close to David in 1850 and the 1840 census doesn't give any names. Anyway, if they were brothers your Landon would have been David and Martha's nephew. Does that sound correct to you?

I haven't called your daughter yet. I figure she lives just very close to us. We are at 8600 North on 67th Avenue (the main entrance to our retirement community) and since she is 7300 North we are probably just a mile apart. Does she share your interest in family history? If so I will see if she would like to join one of my Genealogy groups.

As for the name Scudder, I have tried to find a family connection but so far, no luck. Martha's mother was Lydia Cumback. If you see any of that name connected to your Scudder information that would be where Martha got the middle name. The parents, Isaac Webb and Alice Adams Martin gave their children interesting middle names--Cas(t)ner, Sherwood, Adams (I can understand that one) etc. I also tried to fit Casner into the family and decided since he was a well known preacher in the New England area maybe that's why my great, great grandfather Jacob Casner Martin got his middle name. Noone seems to know so far.

I hope you are well and getting ready for your trip to Florida. We are still melting under 107 degree heat but the nights are getting pleasant at last.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane

A Special Note—

Dear Frances,

I don't think I ever told you about Kara's baby. I am sure I gave you her husbands info. If not let me know.

Alexandria Noella was born on January 15, 2003 weighing in at 5 lbs. 8 oz. A little bitty thing. But she soon put on her anticipated weight. She was a C.S. baby a month early. The doctor pushed her arrival up a month due to Kara's unusual blood pressures.

Love,
